When these people give me directions, I must listen and follow these directions in order to stay safe.

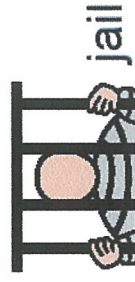

Policemen are so special to us, that there are laws protecting them.

It is against the law to hit a policeman or policewoman.

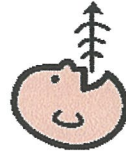

If I break the law by hitting or biting a police officer, I could go to jail.

It is not OK to go to jail.

I must remember to use my words and to use my hands and teeth safely when I am with a police officer.
