

I Can ★ Respect ★
A Police Officer!

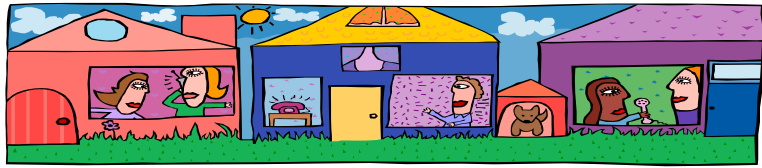

Copyright The Teachers' Corner

I want to be a good citizen and to make good choices. I want to help to keep my neighborhood a great place to live in. I can respect a police officer in different ways each and every day.

I can respect a police officer!

Copyright The Teachers' Corner

Sometimes people in my neighborhood do not make good choices. They might not follow the rules, forget to speak kindly to others, or do not clean up around their homes! Some people may also not be good citizens because they do not respect other people's property, too! If people respect authority, they will make good choices in their own neighborhoods. If people respect authority, they will be good neighbors to others!

I can respect a police officer!

Copyright The Teachers' Corner

A police officer is not happy when people are disrespectful by not being good citizens. A police officer is unhappy if people do not follow the rules. If we respect our police officers by following the rules, our police officers are happy. If we respect our police officers, I am happy, too!

I can respect a police officer!

Copyright The Teachers' Corner

I am a good citizen. I can follow the rules in my neighborhood and respect police officers. I always speak kindly to other people each and every day, too. I always use kind language towards others.

This makes my neighborhood such a great place to be!!

I can respect a police officer!

Copyright The Teachers' Corner

I am a good citizen. I can follow the rules in my neighborhood and respect my police officers. I always help my family to clean up around our house. I also remember to respect other people's property. If it does not belong to me, then I will leave it be! I want to be proud of my behavior each and every day! When I respect police officers, I know that police officers are proud of my behavior, too!

I can respect a police officer!

Copyright The Teachers' Corner